

STAFF TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT POLICY

1. PURPOSE

- 1.1 Jet Refrigeration Pty Ltd ('Jet Refrigeration') recognises the importance of training and developing its staff.
- 1.2 Jet Refrigeration understands that its employees are key to its success as an organisation. It therefore encourages its staff to be continually improving their skills and abilities both through on-the-job and off-the-job training.
- 1.3 Jet Refrigeration acknowledges that training and development of staff provides benefits both to its employees in terms of their overall career and prospects for advancement within the organisation, as well as being central to the success it is able to achieve as a business.
- 1.4 This Staff Training and Development Policy (Policy) sets out what Jet Refrigeration may offer employees through training and development opportunities aimed at promoting the growth of individuals, teams and achieving success for the organisation.

2. COMMENCEMENT OF POLICY

- 2.1 This Policy will commence on 10/06/2021. It replaces all other policies dealing with staff training and development (whether written or not).

3. APPLICATION OF THE POLICY

- 3.1 This Policy applies to all employees of Jet Refrigeration. This Policy does not form part of any employee's contract of employment.

4. TRAINING

- 4.1 Jet Refrigeration may require you to undertake specific training related to your current position, or as a prerequisite for performing a different position, for example if you are promoted to a higher position. Any such training may be carried out either at Jet Refrigeration's premises or externally.
- 4.2 Training opportunities may also arise as part of your performance review. Jet Refrigeration encourages employees to propose suggestions for employment-related training to assist their development.
- 4.3 You are required to have the permission of Jet Refrigeration prior to either signing up, or attending, a training course. If you fail to obtain permission, Jet Refrigeration at its discretion, may decide not to reimburse you for any course fees you have paid or discipline you for any unauthorised time you have taken off work (up to and including termination of employment).

5. HOW DOES STAFF DEVELOPMENT WORK?

- 5.1 Individual staff training and development needs should be discussed during Jet Refrigeration's staff development review process. The review process is designed to:

- a) encourage constructive dialogue between staff members and their supervisors;
- b) enhance the staff member's professional development;
- c) clarify job responsibilities and performance goals/expectations;
- d) establish appropriate development and performance objectives;
- e) help staff identify a possible career path for themselves;
- f) identify ways in which Jet Refrigeration's organisation and/or operation might enable individuals to improve their performance;
- g) ensure that information on job performance and achievements is recorded in each staff member's employment history; and
- h) provide a basis for decisions on remuneration.

6. WHAT CAN Jet Refrigeration OFFER?

6.1 Jet Refrigeration may offer any of the following opportunities for staff development:

- a) an induction program when you join Jet Refrigeration, to understand the manner in which Jet Refrigeration operates, including what contribution you are expected to make;
- b) various degrees of support as you develop the competence and capability for which you have been employed;
- c) the opportunity to develop new competencies and capabilities relevant to your employment with Jet Refrigeration, and which enhance your career prospects and lifelong learning both within and outside Jet Refrigeration;
- d) to participate in Jet Refrigeration's staff development review process with your line manager, including identifying opportunities for ongoing training and/or support, an annual review of your previous development programs and identification of plans for the future; and
- e) an exit interview when you leave Jet Refrigeration, so that your comments may be incorporated into the development programs of other members of staff.

7. WHAT Jet Refrigeration EXPECTS FROM YOU

7.1 Jet Refrigeration expects that you will:

- a) develop your skills and capabilities which are aligned to Jet Refrigeration's strategy at the appropriate level, e.g. team or individual;
- b) participate in staff development review process in partnership with your line manager, including an annual review of your past development and identification of future plans;
- c) take personal responsibility to update your specific expertise on a regular basis, as appropriate to the nature of your job;

- d) identify any training and development opportunities and raise these with management for their consideration;
- e) contribute to team staff development where appropriate; and
- f) keep a record of your staff development activity.

Variations

Jet Refrigeration reserves the right to vary, replace or terminate this policy from time to time.
